"I think it is the duty of the comedian to find out where the line is drawn and cross it deliberately." -- George Carlin

GEORGE CARLIN
JANUARY 25 AT 8 P.M.
CHAPMAN MUSIC HALL
TULSA PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
Presented by Comedy Concepts

After 50 years of engaging audiences with his trademark black humor, George Carlin is once again taking his quips, observations and caustic social commentary on the road. He performs one night only in Tulsa, presented by Comedy Concepts.

The 70-year-old Carlin started a career in radio in the mid-1950s. His act progressed from beat coffeehouses to television, where he gained recognition from powerhouse exposure on The Ed Sullivan Show and later The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson. Carlin later became famous for his "Seven Words You Can Never Say on Television" routine. He was the first comedian to host Saturday Night Live in 1975.

Carlin is the recipient of four Grammy Awards and received the Lifetime Achievement Award in Comedy in 2001. He also is the star of numerous HBO specials and the author of New York Times best-selling books. His next HBO special will air in March 2008. Carlin most recently was heard in the movie Cars as the voice of the character Fillmore and appeared as Ben Affleck's character's father in Jersey Girl.

This show is suitable for mature audiences.
